

Professional Profile

Mag Eric Breiteneder
Attorney
Managing Director

Eric Breiteneder	Eric Breiteneder is an independent lawyer since 2004. Since 2007 he successfully advises private and institutional investors on Austrian and international level. In 2013 he became founding member of IFLN – International Financial Litigation Network in New York, as he considers international action as crucial in investor protection. He is a pioneer in the area of European Collective Redress.
The Firm	Eric Breiteneder developed his law firm to renowned and to a highly noted Austrian firm in international lawyer’s rankings with core competences in the areas of dispute resolution and investor protection. Reaching the top positions in independent ratings and receiving awards for achieved objectives are an impetus for him and never shoulder padding. Parallel to his activities as an attorney at law, he teaches in Austria and abroad.
Education	Eric Breiteneder studied law in Vienna. He decided to exclusively act on behalf of victims and not to represent the wrongdoers as a result of high ethical standards which he demands from himself and his team. He has a cosmopolitan mind-set and is capable of communicating between contrary interests. This has led him to being engaged in several cross-border cases out of the USA, Asia and Europe.
Cases	In the past years Eric Breiteneder has been engaged in cases with a total damage of several hundreds of millions of Euros each including the representation of investors in the cases MEL, Volkswagen, Alpine, Bankia, Forex, and Foreign Currency Credits. In addition, he cooperates closely with various investor protection organisations (World Federation of Investors, better finance, DSW- German Protection Association for the Ownership of Securities, IVA- Austrian Shareholder Association) and consumer protection organisations (VKI- Consumers Association of Austria and SKS- Foundation for Consumer Protection).
